

COFCQUIZ ANSWERS

1. e
2. The Charleston Downtowner Motor Inn
3. e
4. True. The very popular roach races were part of the College's annual Roach-a-Thon, a weeklong festival that ran from 1980 to 1993 and involved a parade, "roach safaris" and a roach stomp.
5. Berry Hall
6. b
7. b
8. c
9. c
10. False. The College did not accept women until 1917.
11. e
12. False. This rumor has no historical accuracy, although the building was used as a female dormitory.
13. C
14. False. Despite what some tour guides may tell you, Randolph Hall, Towell Library and Porters Lodge were never touched by the blood of an ox, a bull or a cow.
15. a
16. c
17. d
18. b
19. a
20. False. Classes were not held in Towell Library during the Civil War. However, records show a shell did hit the library during the Civil War.
21. d
22. 55,400
23. True. When John Cahill - as the College's new porter (aka, janitor) - moved into Porter's Lodge in 1854, he brought his cow, chickens and goats to graze. Despite grumbling from students, they tolerated the animals for the next half-century.
24. b
25. b
26. 1994,199 1998,1999, 2018
27. 18,000
28. c
29. c
30. a